

Behavioral Health Leadership Institute

SAVE THE DATE

The Behavioral Health Leadership Institute
Announces

“Treating the Forgotten Youth”

Clinical Certificate Training
For
Children and Adolescents with Sexual Behavior Problems

August 2010- March 2011

Features:

- Innovations Institute conference, September 15-17, 2010
- 4 days of specialized training to
 - Develop competencies to identify and work with this special population in the community settings
 - Understand inter-related issues such as the roles of and working with family and Department of Juvenile Services, sex offender registration and community resources
 - Enhance clinical expertise through ongoing mentor supervision
- Training manual
- Successful completion meets DJS certification standard
- CEUs for social workers and psychologists

Fee:

$1600: Includes the 3-day conference registration; training manual; specialized training, mentorship and training-day refreshments.

 Cancellations accepted in writing until July 30, 2010; non-refundable $100 processing fee applies.*

For further information and to register, visit www.bhli.org OR contact Deborah Agus, Executive Director, Behavioral Health Leadership Institute or Amy Daniels, Associate to the Director at the agus.bhli@gmail.com or call 410-367-5878.